

PUENTE Learning Center

College and Career Program Instructor

Reporting to the College and Career Program Manager, this part time position plays a key role in furthering PUENTE Learning Center's mission by supporting high school youth as they move toward graduation and into post-secondary education and beyond.

The College and Career Program Instructor will lead our efforts of creating pathways towards college and through college for Los Angeles youth. This position will implement and teach curriculum on college access and career readiness programming at partner high schools and help implement yearly program events such as college visits, career fair, and guest speakers. The Instructor will help collect data for end of year tracking and reporting and will have a varied schedule including Saturday hours in order to accomplish the program goals.

As part of the PUENTE team, you can expect to be part of a community-based educational organization deeply committed to enriching the lives of individuals and families in the Los Angeles area. PUENTE seeks talented people, from diverse backgrounds and experiences, who are motivated and devoted to community, service, and equity through recognizing and embracing the community's cultural wealth.

We want strong collaborators, skilled communicators and developed problem solvers who are comfortable in a culture of continuous learning and who are excited to implement innovative ideas and solutions in service to the mission of the organization.

PUENTE Learning Center is a place for learning, achievement and success. We are committed to making education and job training skills accessible to all. We offer classes for students ages 3 to 80+, from preschool to adults, including computer literacy, English as a Second Language, High School Diploma, a charter elementary school, and after school and summer programs. PUENTE is proud to be part of the Boyle Heights neighborhood, a primarily immigrant community, and serving over 95,000 students in our 37-year history.
